

THE PRODUCER FARM

Sunday 21st - Friday 26th June 2020 • Coombe Farm Studios, Dittisham, Devon

'Producer Farm is the perfect place to step back and reflect on one's profession, values and priorities. I found it very valuable to be able to exchange with peers with different backgrounds and experiences.'

- Nancy Galant, 2019 Participant

'The tools acquired and skills developed/refined through the program are invaluable for my work and I am looking forward to sharing these with colleagues and peers wherever I can.'

- Henriette Kassay-Schuster, 2019 Participant

Call for Participants

The Producer Farm is a joint initiative Fuel, Bristol Old Vic Ferment, Dance Umbrella, In Between Time and Coombe Farm Studios. After running for five successful consecutive years, the week-long residency for creative producers returns to Coombe Farm Studios in Dittisham, Devon in June 2020. The programme aims to provide time and space to consider your current work and future potential.

The residency offers:

- Structured learning from inspiring professionals
- Dedicated time to reflect on and refresh your ideas and practice
- Networking and discussion with peers and senior industry professionals
- A beautiful rural environment, dedicated to growing creativity

Who is it for:

We are offering ten places to:

- Producers who have been working professionally in any field of contemporary performance for 5-10 years
- People with a strong desire to expand their capacity and capabilities as creative producers
- People excited by reaching audiences through the power and quality of new work
- People who are open to new ideas and sharing with their peers

Financial Information:

The residency is free, and participants will be provided with accommodation and all food. We want to ensure that the residency is accessible to all, and so if you consider the travel costs prohibitive to you taking part, please contact Ruby at Bristol Old Vic before you apply bristolferment@bristololdvic.org.uk

Access:

Producer Farm is working towards ensuring equal access for all participants. Coombe Farm has steps, sloped access and uneven ground.

Please contact lara@coombefarmstudios.com to discuss how we can support your participation.

How to apply

Please send a short CV and the completed application form. In the form you should aim to demonstrate how you match the criteria and outline how this residency will benefit you and your work in the future. You will need to commit to the full week of the residency. A panel consisting of representatives from the participating organisations will make the selection. The initial assessment of applications will be made based on track record to date, originality of thinking, potential for development and rationale for attending. Consideration will also be given to selecting a diverse and balanced cohort of participants.

Schedule

Closing date: 12pm, Monday 16th March 2020

Please send completed applications with all relevant links and documents to bristolferment@bristololdvic.org.uk

Notification of participants: by Friday 3rd April 2020

Residency dates: arrivals Sunday 21st June from 4:30pm, departures Friday 26th June 2020