

THE PRODUCER FARM

Sunday 20th – Friday 25th June 2021 • Coombe Farm Studios, Dittisham, Devon

APPLICATION FORM

The Producer Farm residency for creative producers is a joint initiative from Fuel, Bristol Old Vic Ferment, Dance Umbrella, In Between Time and Coombe Farm Studios.

The residency fully covers the costs of tuition, food and accommodation for the duration. We want to ensure that the residency is accessible to all, and so if you consider the travel costs prohibitive to you taking part, please state this and tell us where you are travelling from, in your covering email with your application, so we can look at ways to provide adequate support.

We are happy to accept your answers to the application questions in a format which suits you. This includes written applications using this form or links to video/audio submissions. Please submit audio/video submissions in accordance with the length of the word count i.e. 300 words = 2.3minutes at a regular pace ref <https://wordstotime.com/>. All applications will need to address the questions in the application form. Please also note that audio/video submissions of application questions will still need to submit a CV and answer check box questions.
